

August 29, 1940.

Mr. Ed. Gottlieb,
509 Market St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Gottlieb:

I have just finished going over the League Books and find there is a balance in the treasury of $183.43. Umpires' salary checks were sent for July 27th, this means their checks for August 11th and 27th are due.

Now I received a letter from Tom today in which he said he was calling a meeting for Sept. 3rd in New York to get a lot of difficulties straightened out. I am glad we will get together as there are some things I am completely in the dark about. I cannot understand why the League money from the East-West game was given to the Secretary instead of the Treasurer. In view of the fact you have $250.00 in your custody against $183.43 in the treasury, I think you should take care of the umpires' salaries. If at the Meeting the Members would like me to turn over the balance in the treasury to you, I will be glad to do so. It seems silly for an organization of six Members to have two of them handling the funds, especially when the elected Treasurer has tried so hard to handle the office efficiently. Please do not misunderstand me, there are no hard feelings, but I am a little mistified.

Thanks for taking care of my checks East-West game and mailing them to me.

Very truly yours,

AM:CCJ

P. S. Am enclosing check for $7.50 for Mo Harris, that I made a mistake on.